A Venerable Har Lost.—An incident occurred this afternoon on Main at Bridge, which caused some excitement. Our venerable townsman General H., of life-boat memory, had his hat taken by the wind from his head to the river, while crossing the bridge, and the hat went over the Falls. This hat was the same he were when he called upon Gen. Lefayette and Gov. Clinton on their first passage over the Grand Eric Canal. It's gone forever!—Rochester Union.

A SMALL Broinning.—In the year 1700, ten clergymen met at Branford, each one bringing a few books under his arm. Placing these on the table in Parson Russell's study, each said solemaly, "I give these books for the founding of a college in this colony." A century and a half have gone by, and Yale College counts its graduates by thousands—and this was its foundation.

DESTH OF ONE OF THE CREW OF THE BAIG ECHO. - Antonio Genez, a Spaniard, and one of the crew of the slaver brig Echo, died yesterday morning, in the jail of this district. Since the arrival of the Africans, twenty five have died from the diseases which accompanied them when brought into port. They have had the constant attendance at the Fort of an experienced physician. The remainder of the negroes, to the number of 281, appear to be in a healthy condition. Charleston Cour. Sep. 18.

The Virtage in France.—All the accounts from France concur in stating that the grape disease is passing very lightly over the vineyards, and that there will be an early and abundant vintage. In confirmation of this, it is stated that empty casks are selling throughout the vine-growing region at exorbitantly high prices. The fine appearance of the vineyards, and the immense stock in the bonded stores of Paris, have paralyzed the efforts of the spectators for a rise in price.—Philadelphia Inquire.

THE ATLANTIC CABLE.—The statement by Mr. C. W. Field that the delay in opening the Atlantic cable is attitutable to changing the shore end, receives an explanation by some intelligence in the late foreign news. It is said the company have been preparing some stouter cable to take the place of that portion of the regular one which lies in shoal water, where it is more subject to the action of the waves. On the 1st of September this substitute was shipped from London for Valentia, and, after it was laid there, the remainder was to be taken to Trinity bay, so that the whole of this month would be required for the operation. Religious Advancement.—It is stated that actual statistics show that during the late fifty years "the number of members of the evangelical churches in the United States has increased from four hundred thousand to three millions and a half, being an increase of eightfold, while our population has increased fourfold." A curious Hebrew publication has just issued from the Berlin press—a biography of Alexander Von Humboldt, written in the ancient tongue, and destined to extend the knowledge of the life and scientific labors of this celebrated man in the wide circle of the Russo-Polish and Asiatic Jews. The full title is: "Alexander Von Humboldt; a Biographical Sketch, Dedicated to the Nestor of Wisdom on his 88th Eirthday, by S. Sliminski." The author is a Russian Iaraelite, who some years ago invented a clever calculating machine, and drew upon himself at that time, by his mathematical knowledge, the attention of the celebrated astronomers, Herren Bessel and Jacoby, of Konigsburg.

Sunken Theasures.—The Charleston (S. C.) Courier has a letter from Havana, Cuba, wherein the writer says: "There are five Spanish men of-war sank just in the mouth of the harbor. Two of them have been there ever since the British forces achieved the conquest of this island. I learn, from reliable authority, that an American engineer has made an offer of twenty-seven thousand dollars for the five ships and their contents to the authorities of the island. Mr. McLAUGHLIN'S LECTURE.

The large saloon of Temperance Hall was crowded t rerflowing on Sunday evening to hear the lecture of H C. McLaughlin, esq., on the Life and Genius of Chat-terton, or Poetry, Intemperance, and Suicide. The able lecturer fully came up to his previously-acquired reputa-tion as a graceful and classic writer, and an impressive and eloquent speaker. For upwards of an hour he kept his intelligent and highly-gratified, auditory spell-bound his intenigent and nightly-gratinea auditory speli-bound by his pathetic narrative of Chatterton's afflictions and sorrows, occasionally, and at appropriate intervals, alter-nating his recital by judicious reflections upon his ge-nius and writings. The lecturer dwelt with great beauty times and passed.

Mr. A. W. Miller, from the committee on unfinished business, reported the petition of Dr. J. M. Toner, praying compensation for medical services rendered to prisoners in the guard-house, and moved its reference to the committee on claims; which was agreed to.

The act from the lower board "to repeal a certain act," and the concurrent resolution in reference to a new Centre Market, were severally considered and passed. Several other bills from the lower board were read by their titles and appropriately referred.
